

STONE-McCABE HOUSE - 1897 - ⁷⁹⁰⁹~~7908~~ York Road, Towson. Colonial revival, shingle covered, frame house built in 1897 or soon thereafter on a lot acquired from the Airgurth estate by Mrs. John H. (Clara B.) Stone. House was shown as extant but not named in the 1898 Bromley atlas. Sold in 1913 to Marie Green McCabe. Later owned by Mr. and Mrs. Calvert McCabe. Sold by the McCabe heirs to the Catholic archdiocese in 1966 to serve as a Newman Center for students attending Towson State University across the road. A small frame chapel was built on the grounds in 1985.

BA-2481

Stone-McCabe House

7909 York Road (MD 45), Towson

Bromley Atlas, 1915

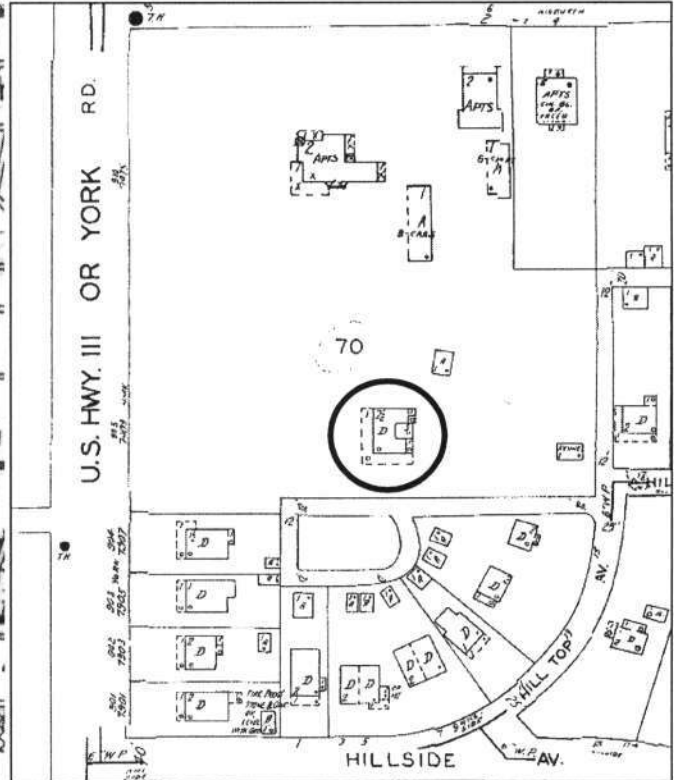

BA-2481
 Stone-McCabe House
 7909 York Road (MD 45), Towson
 Towson Quadrangle

Sanborn Map, 1955

Live Search image, 2007

Tax Map 70, p. 55

